

Moosewood Nature Center Presents: Summer Day Camp 2008!

5- 7 yr olds 9-12pm

July 8- 10

In Cold Blood: Explore Cold Blooded Animals!

Amazing amphibians, really cool reptiles, and fascinating fish.

July 15-17

Splish, Splash: Water Exploration

Want to learn more about the Great Lakes? Discover all the creatures that live and depend on the water! Then we'll go fishing!

July 22-24

"The Rat takes the Cheese:" Predator and Prey

Fantastic food chains, cool camouflage and specialized characteristics that help animals survive.

July 29-31

Things That Go Bump in the Night!

Everything night! Nocturnal animals, special senses used at night, and constellations.

August 5-7

Don't Bug Me!

Come learn about all of our six legged friends!

Fees per child per each session enrolled:

$45.00 for Moosewood Members

$55.00 for Not-Yet-Members

(Membership discount starts at Family membership and up)

10% discount for multiple children enrolled or weeks enrolled

Checks, cash and credit cards accepted!

To register please call or fax to:

228-6250

Or mail:

P.O. Box 773, Marquette, MI 49855

Or drop-in:

At Presque Isle Park

8-12 yr olds 1-5pm

July 8- 10

Roaming Reptiles

Explore our reptile friends: terrific turtles and slithery snakes.

July 15-17

Water, Water Everywhere!

Water Olympics, watersheds, the Great Lakes, and creatures that live in water. Then get your rod and lets go fishing.

July 22-24

Survival of the Fittest!: Beginner Survival Skills

Learn basic primitive skills, orienteering, outdoor cooking, and building fire.

July 29-31

Furs, Skulls and Tracks O, My!

What animal has been here? Solve the mystery with furs, skulls, tracks, scat, and more.

August 5-7

Creature Shifters: Butterflies, Dragonflies and More!

Explore insects that undergo metamorphosis- butterflies, dragonflies, damselflies and moths. And, animals that change their skin and fur color.

August 12-14

Ojibwa of Lake Superior Today: A Vibrant Culture

Celebrate Ojibwa culture through nature hikes, music, art, and food, with Native American teachers.

Made possible by a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts and Cultural Affairs/
CUPPAD.

August 18-19

Overnight Camping Experience

Join our naturalists on a special camping experience you won't forget. Set-up a tent, sing by the fire, go for a hike, and learn all about the outdoors.